2025 Exceptional Contribution Award. Jacci Reznicek embodies NCSBN's mission in all aspects of her work. As a nursing education consultant at the Nebraska State Board of Nursing, Jacci inspires nurse educators and is an advocate for change.

She exemplifies professionalism, collaboration, open-mindedness, and excellence. Her passion for nursing regulation and nursing education is visible in every aspect of her work. Known for going beyond in the nursing regulation world, Jacci works hard to empower nursing programs in Nebraska.

She spent two years preparing education programs for the NGN. Her hard work paid off. The state had a 96% RN pass rate in the first quarter following the NGN's release. Jacci was also a key contributor to a comprehensive rewrite of the state's regulations governing the approval of nursing programs.

Because of demonstrated teamwork, dedication to improving nursing regulation, passion for excellence, and significant contributions to NCSBN's mission, Jacci is being honored with the 2025 Exceptional Contribution Award. 🎵 [music] 🎵
